‘Attendance Newsletter’ winner for the half term- Amadi

(Amadi has been at school every day this half term)

Congratulations to all our winners

We are coming up to the eighth and final week of the half term. We are closed on Friday 25th October for a teacher training day. Pupils will be back in school on Monday 4th November, after the half term break.

During half term can you please check that your child has all the equipment and uniform they need for school including black school shoes. Some pupils do not have a pencil case and are borrowing one from the school office. Please check pencil cases have all the correct equipment and PE kit.

It has been a very busy half term but I’m pleased to say that everyone has settled into school and is working hard. We are beginning to see some pupils not coping very well with their social relationships, who are engaging in winding each other up and name calling. This will not be tolerated in school and pupils who do this will be taken out of class to work on their own. We hold detentions at lunchtime and pupils lose their breaks and the opportunity to enjoy themselves. Pupils with two detentions in a week lose their Golden Time. These are the consequences for bad choices and all pupils understand this.

Drinks for packed lunches must be water or pure fruit juice only. Any other drink will be sent back home.

Have a good weekend.
